

LIBERTY CALLS

Daily Schedule

10 AM to 5 PM

August 12 – 15, 2021

10:00 Event Opens – free admission (no pets allowed)

All-day activities

Scavenger hunts for the kids (and any interested adults!)

"Text" on an 18th-century Printing Press (Printer's Shop)

Watch the blacksmith hand-crank a coal forge (Colonial Village)

Family Friendly 18th Century spinning, weaving, knitting and trim making demonstrations (Daughters of Liberty - Marquee Tent)

Research your ancestors (Daughters of the American Revolution booth)

Marching with the Fife & Drum Corps

BBQ, Beverages and More – Off the Chain Southern BBQ near parking area

Lavender Ice Cream, Event T-shirts, and Lavender Products – Farm Gift Shop

10:00 18th Century hair dressing (Th & Saturday only)

10:30 – noon Meet George Washington in the Gatehouse

11:00 Military Drill and Cannon Firing (outside of gates)

Afternoon activities

Educational presentations by the Sons of the American Revolution

Social graces and Dancing of the 18th Century

Marching with the Fife & Drum Corps

Noon – 1:30 Meet Martha Washington in the Gatehouse

1:30 – 3:00 Meet George Washington in the Gatehouse

2:00 Sons of Liberty vs. British Regulars skirmish

3:00 "Freedom of the Press" by Isaiah Thomas (Printer's Shop)

3:00 – 5:00 Meet Eliza Pinckney in the Gatehouse – Eliza is perhaps best known for her development of indigo as one of the most important cash crops in colonial America. Its cultivation and processing as dye produced one-third the total value of the South Carolina colony's exports before the Revolutionary War.